CINCINNATI, - March 4th, 1853. Da. Forsus.—This is the first time in my long life that I have given my name in recommendation of any medicine, as a general remedy, though I have often been solicited. have used your Alterative Balm for nearly two years; first, for the rheumatism in my hip and knee, of which I was nearly a cripple; then for knee, of which I was nearly a cripple; then for very severe bruises on two of my family; then a yiolent attack of diarrhom myself; then for in-flammation, then for bugns, bruises, and for a very severe case of stiff neck, brought on by a violent cold, and I think I have had full proof of its medical properties, in a great ma-ny of the diseases for which you recommend it, and I have not found it to fail in any one of them. Still, I do not say that it is an infallible cure; yet it is my sober conviction, that it is the best compound for those diseases for which it is recommended, that I have ever tried, and I have tried many. I will not, if I can procure it, be without it in my family, for any considertion. Hoping that you will still continue to compound it hones by, and that it may relieve thousands of sufferers, I most heartly recom-mend it to my fellow-ortizens as a most excellent Family Medicine. Yours affectionately, J. B. FINLEY.

Some three weeks ago, I sprained my knee very badly, so much so as to produce a partial dislocation of the knee joint which confined me to the use of crutches. I tried all the usual remedies in my reach, such as Pain Killer, Limments, &c., without any benefit. I was, finally, induced by a friend, to try your "Balm," and in twenty minutes after applying it, I was enabled to bear my weight upon it, and walk across the room without a cane. os it, and walk across the room without a cane, which I had previously been unable to do, and the pain and soreness had entirely left it.
